

Kentucky Association of Chiefs of Police Accredited Agencies

Updated August 7, 2017

Approved for First Four-Year Certification:

Bowling Green Police Department, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (April 2015)

Muhlenberg County 911, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (April 2015)

Elizabethtown Police Communications Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (May 2015)

Murray State University Police Communications, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (June 2015)

City of Murray Communications Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (June 2015)

Henderson Communications Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (June 2015)

University of Louisville Police, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (June 2015)

Frankfort/Franklin County E-911, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (June 2015)

Boyd County 911, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (January 2016)

Daviess County/Owensboro 911 Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (April 2016)

City of Paducah 911 Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (April 2016)

Kenton County Emergency Communications Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (December 2016)

Erlanger 911 Center, 1st 4 year Certificate of Accreditation (July 2017)